

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., December 23rd, 1880.

Sir:

^{10 cents} I send you by current mail ten books of deposit tickets.

I desire that you should hand one of these books to each of your principal regular depositors and request that when a deposit is sent to your Mint a ticket be filled out to accompany it, so as to indicate the locality of production. The statement by the depositor of gross weight or value and supposed fineness may be mutually convenient for identification, though it is not essential, but you are instructed to insist

That the written statement of the place of production shall accompany the deposit,

Very respectfully,
